Straight Talks on Patent Medicines

The "Rexall" Remedies deserve confidence. As all these remedies are grouped under one name, they must succeed or fail together. There must be no weak links in this chain. One unworthy remedy would mean disaster to the entire plan. If you, for example, purchased the "Rexall" Cough Cure and were not cured by it, how could we expect you to place any faith thereafter in the "Rexall" Dyspepsia Cure or any other member of the "Rexall" family?

You can understand, therefore, why such anxious care was given to finding and choosing the remedies to which the name "Rexall" was given. We have admitted none to this circle until our committee of experts had been convinced by investigation and test that it was the best remedy known to medical science for the ailment it aimed to relieve.

Who should know better than the leading thousand druggists of this country what are, and what are not, efficient medicines?

Remember, the success of our enterprise depends on the merit of each individual remedy. Our reputation, which is our very business existence is at stake. Can you doubt, that in buying a "Rexall" Remedy, you are buying the best that science and experience can give you?

Here are three prominent members of the "Rexall" family:

REXALL "03" HAIR TONIC

The famous Rexall "03" Hair Tonic is composed in chief of Resorcin, Beta Naphthol and Pilocarpin.

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ-killers discovered by a science, and in connection with Beta Naphthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which not only destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, but creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the lodgment and development of new germs.

Pilocarpin is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease of the scalp. It is not a coloring matter or dye—it produces its effect by stimulating the scalp and hair follicles to health and active life.

This combination of curatives mixed with alcohol as a stimulant, perfects the most effective remedy for hair and scalp troubles known to-day.

Per Bottle, 50c.

REXALL DYSPESIA TABLETS

The remarkable success of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets is largely due to the new and successful method of manufacture, whereby the well known properties of Bismuth Subnitrate and Pepsin have been combined with carminatives and other agents.

Bismuth Subnitrate and Pepsin are recognized by the entire medical profession as specifics for acute indigestion or chronic dyspepsia.

The Pepsin used is manufactured under a new process which develops its greatest efficiency. Pepsin not only supplies to the digestive machinery one of the most important elements of the digestive fluid, but it seems to exert a tonic influence upon the glands which supply all the other elements.

The carminatives add properties which promptly relieve pains caused by undigested food.

The combination of the whole makes a remedy absolutely invaluable to any man or woman suffering from dyspepsia—and not only a remedy, but a cure which works by gradually rebuilding and stimulating the glands which perform the digestive functions. Package, 25c.

CHERRY JUICE COUGH SYRUP

A new idea in Cough Syrups. This preparation owes its efficiency to the presence of Wild Cherry, Vinegar Squills, Bone-set, Horehound and Syrup.

All of these have been known for a hundred years as remedies for coughs and hoarseness.

In Rexall Cherry Juice Cough Syrup, all of these remedies have been combined by a process of manufacture that has blended them into a perfect medicinal harmony whereby the characteristics of each support and reinforce the others.

The pathological properties of each ingredient does its own particular work in easing the inflamed membranes, loosening the phlegm and setting up a condition of health in the bronchial and nasal passages.

One spoonful will relieve the inflamed membranes and temporarily stop the cough. One bottle will work a cure. It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste—children like it. Per Bottle, 25c.

Look for this Rexall Guarantee on each package: "This preparation is guaranteed to give satisfaction. If it does not, come back and get your money. It belongs to you, and we want you to have it."

Why Smoot Should Be Rejected

The Reed Smoot case is still hanging in the air. The pressure of public sentiment upon that body for action is steadily accumulating and the question will soon have to be settled one way or the other. There are memorials now on file in the Senate containing the names of hundreds of thousands of citizens asking for Smoot's rejection.

It is well to recognize the exact status of this case to form a fair and intelligent judgment on it. In the first place, Smoot should not be rejected simply because he is a Mormon. A man's religion should not be made a test of citizenship or of political advancement. In the second place, Smoot is not a polygamist. The most thorough inquiry as to that has been made and there is no doubt that he is the husband of one wife only and has not personally violated the law against plural marriage. In the third place, Smoot is unobjectionable as to his manners, speech and habits. Personally, it is said, he is an agreeable gentleman to meet, a man of good intelligence and education.

Why, then, should he not be permitted to take his seat in the Senate? He has been duly elected and commissioned by the people of the State of Utah, and unless there are grave objections it is just neither to him nor to the State which sent him to Washington to keep him out of the Senate.

The objection, as we have seen, is not on the surface. No doubt thousands have signed the remonstrances believing him to be a polygamist. Many others would have him excluded simply because he is a Mormon; but neither of these objections is legitimate.

Smoot should be rejected mainly because he is a member of the Mormon hierarchy, a body of Mormon officials which controls the relations of Mormon believers to the State and to society, and which in many ways has shown, and is showing, its hostility to the Government and some of the most cherished institutions of this country.

The main indictment against the hierarchy is its defiant attitude on the subject of polygamy. It has been shown that many Mormons, including the present members of the hierarchy, are practicing plural marriage. President Smith is openly living as the husband of five wives. He and others have declared before a committee of the Senate that they propose to continue their unlawful and degrading relations with their plural households.

Now, how is Smoot connected with these open and defiant violations of law and decency? Not, as we have seen, by personal indulgence, but by the closest official relations with those who are personally guilty. He is an "apostle." As such he must be held responsible for the spirit, the acts and the declarations of his fellow apostles, where they are immoral, disloyal to the State or injurious to society, unless he openly and clearly denies and condemns them. In his testimony before the Senate committee he did declare that he was opposed to the polygamous relations of President Smith and the other apostles, but that was dragged out of him by the inquiries of the committee.

By no voluntary utterance has he shown that his declaration of hostility was sincere. On the contrary the following fulsome praise of President Smith was delivered by him last October in an address before the seventy-sixth annual conference of the Mormon church. It appears in the Deseret News, the official organ of that church:

"I believe that the Latter-day Saints, who have the spirit of God in them, never had more confidence in a man or a set of men than they have in the presidency of the church today. I wish that every one could read the heart and understand the thoughts of the presidency, and all others who are trying, in their humble way, to lead and direct the affairs of this people. I feel that if it were possible for you to put me, you would not only love them as you have in the past, but you would have for them still greater love."

That expression of confidence and love, it must be remembered, was given to a man who at that time was living with five wives and made no concealment of his lawlessness and shameful violation of solemn pledges given by his church when Utah was admitted into the Union.

The whole history of the Mormon church proves that the ruling powers of that organization—the hierarchy—have been loyal to the United States Government when the laws of their church and the laws of the Government conflict. In short, they put the church in its relation to society above the State. It is further susceptible to proof that the hierarchy controls the political action of the membership, and that the votes of the members are determined by the will of the body of which Reed Smoot is a member.

These considerations are sufficient to justify his exclusion from the Senate. Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, February 7, 1906.
